LOT 39 - Boss - 6yr - 15.2HH - Gelding

ELA Soundness Policy Covered

Registered No

Breed GRADE - Not Registered

Story If you want pretty boss is that, if you want gentle boss is that, if your looking for a gelding to go gather your cattle, drag calves to the fire, trail ride, smooth moving, soft in the bridle and stays that way every time you ride him, if your wanting the Biness, Boss is that Biness. Boss has been a phenomenal gelding to own during his duration here. We've used him around for all sorts of jobs on the place. Boss has always been super gentle and has never shown any signs of being mean or shown aggressiveness towards anyone or anything. Boss glides across the ground very smoothly at the trot and lope drags his butt stopping collects at the poll when he's moving around....

and lope drags his butt stopping collects at the poll when he's moving around. Boss is a very independent gelding that stands tied when the other horses leave him without pawing the ground, boss will ride along the trails alone or with company. He's a special horse that will become someone's pride and joy to own. Boss is also suitable for novice level riders you don't have to be a cowboy to get along with boss.
