Story Lola is a 16/17 Yo Percheron draft cross mare. She is the perfect size standing around 15.3 hands, huge feet and bone structure with a pretty face and eyes. She is gentle and easy to be around. Lola has been ground driven and rode down the trail. She isn't fancy broke but goes along just fine. She's good with all her feet. Never offered to kick, strike, or bite. Stands tied, loads in the trailer, and bathes. She handles like an easy smaller horse. She has been used has a broodmare for the past handful of years. She is a great mother, raises BIG babies and easily weans ...

Lola has been ground driven and rode down the trail. She isn't fancy broke but goes along just fine. She's good with all her feet. Never offered to kick, strike, or bite. Stands tied, loads in the trailer, and bathes. She handles like an easy smaller horse. She has been used has a broodmare for the past handful of years. She is a great mother, raises BIG babies and easily weans them every year. Lola has been exposed to a shire stud. Although not confirmed in foal, we watched the stud breed her and both are sound breeders in the past. Here's your chance to own a nice gentle draft mare exposed to a shire.
