Picture PRETTY QT mare well built with good bone

She has been Team Penned on over the years and been ridden on lots of trails covering many miles of ground

Her owner lived down the road and so friends have know her a long time as she had the same owner for many years .Her Owner up and got married and Maggie ended up sitting unused in the pasture while the newlyweds started their new lives together. She will need a tune up and some conditioning before she sets out on any long mile trips like “Lonesome Dove” Captain Cull & Augusts McCrae would do .But I will tell ya one thing for sure you will drive them wheels off your truck before you find one prettier then Maggie and any better built. She’ll be the one turning heads when you are riding down that trail and just might get you your next bride or wife for the night out there on that trail. She is the one you want to take home with you.
