LOT 95 - Chips Fair Cut - 15yr - 15.1hh - Gelding - AQHA

ELA Soundness Policy Covered

Registered Yes

Breed AQHA

Sire Fair Victory

Dam Cutters Dainty Kay

Story Chip is a gelding that's been there and done that. Chip is 100% gentle at every job is known to do. Chip is a finished head horse that is perfect for beginner level ropers and someone that's just learning how to rope. Chip is quiet in the box, scores like a rock and doesn't leave until you put your hand forward, chip leaves flat, smooth and run to the same spot every time. Chip was used at the jr. High rodeo finals this year in Georgia and has been a few times before that. If you don't want a rope horse and need a good honest gelding for yourself or kids to use around the place chip will also work for that, he's not a hot rod, and doesn't require a tie down when not being roped on...
