Story If you ever wanted a golden retriever in a horse form, Dutch is it! He is in-your-pocket friendly, comes to meet you at the gate, will follow you around in an open field, and loves to spend time with his people. He is a jack of many trades. He's well broke in the arena and out. He enjoys being groomed and is good about his feet. Dutch rides western or english. He has been well started over small jump courses and he loves it. He can turn on a dime and has get-up-and-go when asked. Has ponied at the track ...

If you ever wanted a golden retriever in a horse form, Dutch is it! He is in-your-pocket friendly, comes to meet you at the gate, will follow you around in an open field, and loves to spend time with his people. He is a jack of many trades. He's well broke in the arena and out. He enjoys being groomed and is good about his feet. Dutch rides western or english. He has been well started over small jump courses and he loves it. He can turn on a dime and has get-up-and-go when asked. Has ponied at the track and been roped off of. On the trail, he prefers to follow if he's with another horse. Easy keeper. Barefoot. Patterns easily. Once he understands the job he's expected to do, he goes right to it. Knows voice commands for walk, trot, canter, and whoa. Lunges on a line and in the round pen very well. Stands quietly to be saddled, bridled, and mounted (from the ground or from a mounting block,) and stands tied like a pro. Very social and a total sweetheart. Shaunaperry00@gmail.com
