Breed: POA

Story Java is an eye-catching buckskin gelding that turns heads everywhere he goes. He's one of the sweetest ponies I have ever trained. He craves attention, is very easy to catch, and will follow you around wherever you go. Due to his extensive training, Java would be an amazing step up pony for an intermediate/advanced kid or small adult. Java has competed in trail trials and has consistently placed at the top of his class. Java runs and places A times in gymkhanas without being pushed. This gelding carries a flag, has been roped off, ponied horses and goats, drags logs, has worked cows, does flying lead changes, side passes, you can shoot off of him, stands for ...
