We call this gelding shotgun, when it's time for everyone to pick a horse to use for the day everyone hollers through the barn I'm riding shotgun. Riding is him just like ridding in the passenger seat fun, comfortable and enjoyable. This gelding is well broke and great to use on the ranch. Shotgun has had thousands of miles out on him outside, in all of the elements. Shotgun does all of the ranch chores and hasn't spent many days without being employed he comes well broke, soft in the bridle and very easy to ride with not too many buttons. Shotgun will leave you smiling every time you climb aboard. Shotgun is very stout from the horn, honest in the branding pen and will also let you step off and doctor cattle with him. Shotgun gets along great with other horses in the pen and doesn't cause any problems. 541-650-1201.
