Story Logan is a very pretty bay roan gelding, with a kind eye, and quiet disposition. He leads, ties, loads great in our stock trailer, shoes, bathes, ponies, saddles easy, and gets along great with the herd. Neck reins, side passes, will haunch turn, has some buttons. He is very sweet, but would be best for an intermediate rider. My girls have rode him the most, and he does great for my younger teenage daughter. We have played about with gymkhana patterns, pushed cows around, and done a few trails. He will ride in a snaffle, hack, and he loves a loose shank Billy Allen style mouth bit. He does best with just a couple min of lunging to get him into a working mindset, or he can be a bit choppy and speedy picking up a lope. He sells as is, as he needs some maintenance. When I bought him last year he was really stiff in the neck/left shoulder. We had some body work done and it made a huge difference. Plus, stretching him a bit before riding helped a lot. Overall he's a sweet dude, who is willing to please, but we are downsizing a lot of stuff due to job loss.
